How is GPlan better than ThePLAN or ThePLAN PLUS?

GPlan with Device

Convert calls and texts into data.

Use your data allowance for telco services, subscriptions, or lifestyle vouchers.

Modify your plan inclusions every month.

When will GPlan take effect if I change to this new plan as an existing postpaid customer?

If you're out of contract:

You can change your plan anytime, and the new plan will take effect on your next billing cycle.

If you're within the contract:

You can switch to a GPlan as long as you upgrade to a higher plan or retain the same plan amount. If you're moving to a lower plan, you'll need to pay a pre-termination fee before availing of GPlan.

How much will I be charged for my first bill as a new GPlan customer?

Your first bill will include:

A partial charge for your Monthly Recurring Fee (MRF), covering the period from your activation date to your bill cut-off date.

A one-month advance of your MRF.

You can find these details in the Plan Summary section of your bill.

How much will I be charged for my first bill as an existing customer who switches to a GPlan?

If you switch plans mid-cycle, your first bill after the change will show:

A prorated amount for the old plan (already paid in the previous bill).

A prorated amount for the new plan.

An advance charge for the MRF of your new plan.

If you're moving from an All-Unli or All-New mySuperPlan (which doesn't charge an advance MRF), your bill will include:

A prorated amount for the new plan.

An advance MRF for the new plan.

What are the charges for local and international usage on GPlan?

GPlan provides:

100 minutes of all-net calls for mobile and landline.

100 all-net texts for local use (starting April 1, 2023).

For browsing, your main data allowance will cover local internet usage.

For international calls, texts, and data usage, standard rates apply.

What types of calls are included in the calls and texts of GPlans?

The 100 minutes of all-net calls and 100 all-net texts include:

Calls and texts to all networks (including the third telco).

Landline calls to Globe landlines and other providers like PLDT.

What happens if I use up my data allowance?

If SurfAlert is turned on:

Your browsing will pause once you fully consume your data for the billing month.

You'll receive a notification and a flash message, letting you decide whether to stop browsing or purchase a data add-on.

With SurfAlert, there's no risk of unexpected charges since your connection stops if you run out of data.

How do I track the remaining GBs from my data allowance?

You can check your remaining data allowance using the

GlobeOne app

or by texting DATA BAL to 8080.

Can I still avail of other add-ons with GPlan?

Yes! You can purchase add-ons anytime, and the charges will be automatically included in your next bill.

What happens if I change to GPlan before or after my contract ends?

Before your contract ends:

You'll need to pay any applicable pre-termination fees before switching to GPlan.

You can retain your existing number and enjoy the upgraded inclusions and features of GPlan, based on the variant you choose.

How much will I be charged as a pre-termination fee if I terminate my GPlan before my contract ends?

Pre-termination fees depend on your plan variant:

GPlan with Device: Calculated based on your remaining contract months and device amortization.

GPlan with GCash: Determined by the remaining contract period and the amount credited.

For specific details, contact Globe customer service.

Spending Limit FAQs

Source: <https://www.globe.com.ph/help/postpaid/spending-limit>

Spending Limit FAQs

Spending Limit

Frequently Asked Questions on Spending Limit

Help

Postpaid

Spending Limit

What is the Spending Limit?

The Spending Limit is a feature that helps you manage your postpaid spending more effectively. It's the maximum amount you can spend on extra services or products beyond your monthly plan, allowing you to stay close to your budget.

This acts as an allowance for your unbilled usage. If you exceed this limit, your outgoing services-such as calls, texts, and mobile data-will be temporarily turned off to help prevent additional charges.

Don't worry; if you have any existing unlimited or bulk offers, you can still use them. Your Spending Limit resets at the beginning of each new billing cycle.

If you're unsure of the Spending Limit assigned to your account, you can check it in the dashboard section of the GlobeOne app.

What are the benefits of Spending Limit?

Here are some ways Spending Limit can help you:

Keep Track of Your Usage

You'll receive regular text notifications when you reach certain usage levels, helping you monitor your spending.

Control Over Your Monthly Budget

The auto-turn-off feature temporarily disables outgoing calls, texts, and mobile internet when you hit your Spending Limit. This keeps you within your budget while still allowing incoming calls, texts, and any existing unlimited or bulk offers.

Keep in mind that roaming and content charges may appear later, which could delay the disabling of outgoing services. You might also incur charges higher than your set Spending Limit.

Easy Reconnection

To restore your outgoing services, simply pay 100% of your unbilled usage plus any remaining balance from your previous bill. You can request reconnection by calling our customer care hotline at (02) 7730-1000 or reaching out via FB Messenger at m.me/globeph.

Does the Spending Limit guarantee that I won't go over my Postpaid budget?

Think of the Spending Limit as a helpful guide for understanding your excess charges relative to your monthly plan. Using any portion of your Spending Limit means you've incurred extra usage.

Remember that roaming and content charges may reflect later, which could delay the disabling of outgoing services, leading to bills higher than your set Spending Limit.

How can I keep track of my usage?

To help you monitor your expenses, you'll receive automated text reminders about your usage.

You can also track your usage in the dashboard section of the GlobeOne app.

For roaming, direct carrier billing, and other content-related charges, expect that these usages may reflect later in the dashboard

Is there a required Spending Limit amount?

To give you extra room for spending on services outside of your plan, the minimum Spending Limit is set at PHP 201, or based on your monthly recurring fee (MRF)-whichever is greater, starting at MRF + PHP 1. For example, if your MRF is 599, your Spending Limit would be 600.

Your assigned Spending Limit could be higher, and you can check it in the dashboard section of the GlobeOne app.

What happens if I exceed my Spending Limit?

To help you stay within your budget, your outgoing calls, texts, and mobile data will be temporarily disabled if you reach your Spending Limit. Don't worry; you'll still receive incoming calls and texts!

For roaming, direct carrier billing, and other content charges, remember that these may show up later, which could delay the disabling of services. You may incur charges higher than your Spending Limit as well.

Your Spending Limit resets at the start of each new billing cycle

How do I reactivate my outgoing services?

To reactivate your outgoing services, simply pay your full (100%) unbilled usage along with any remaining balance from your previous bill.

With your payment details ready, you can request reconnection through our customer care hotline at (02) 7730-1000 or reach out to us on Facebook Messenger at

m.me/globeph

Why do I need to suspend my Spending Limit if you already gave a 30-day payment due date extension?

The 30-day payment due date extension allows you to avoid temporary disconnection due to non-payment. However, if your account has an assigned Spending Limit and you exceed it, your outgoing services will be disabled.

Don't worry-if you are registered for unlimited or bulk offers, such as UNLI all-net texts or 100 minutes of calls, you can still use those services even after exceeding your limit.

How can I suspend my Spending Limit and how long will it take you to process my request?

To help meet your connectivity needs during this time, you'll receive a text message with instructions on how to suspend your Spending Limit.

Once you've sent your reply, we'll process your request within a maximum of 5 days. You'll be notified via text when the suspension is in place.

What will happen if I don't suspend my Spending Limit? Will it resume automatically if I suspend it?

If you don't suspend your Spending Limit, there's a chance you might exceed it, leading to the temporary disabling of your outgoing services-such as calls, texts, and mobile data. If you have existing unlimited or bulk offers, you can still use those.

When you suspend your Spending Limit, we'll schedule it to resume on your nearest cut-off date. The exact date will be provided in the text we send you.

Can I resume my spending limit earlier than scheduled?

Yes, you can! If you wish to resume your Spending Limit earlier, just reach out to us on Facebook Messenger at

m.me/globeph

Platinum GPlans

are enhanced

postpaid plans

designed to give you, our valued Platinum customer, a seamless and worry-free mobile experience. With these plans, you can enjoy unmatched connectivity and exclusive benefits tailored just for you.

We offer two options to suit your needs:

Platinum GPlan (with Device)

Platinum GPlan SIM-Only

Here's what makes the Platinum GPlans bigger and better:

Platinum GPlan (with Device): Enjoy bigger built-in all-month data surf.

Platinum GPlan SIM-Only: Get unlimited data for worry-free surfing.

Unlimited calls and texts to all networks and unlimited calls to landlines nationwide.

Consumable and data roaming allowance.

Accelerated Globe Rewards points for higher plans.

You can avail of these plans starting today through the following channels:

Platinum Relationship Manager

Thea, our Platinum Digital Assistant

Platinum hotline: 188 or 02 7730 1888

Any Globe Store

All applications are subject to approval, and additional requirements may be requested as needed.

With Platinum GPlan SIM-Only, do I need to pay for unlimited data roaming?

The Platinum GPlan SIM-Only includes a monthly allocation of unlimited data roaming, laddering up across different plan levels:

3-day unlimited data roaming per month at Plan 3799.

5-day unlimited data roaming per month at Plan 4999.

7-day unlimited data roaming per month at Plan 7999.

Once the data roaming allowance is consumed, regular data roaming charges will apply. Please note that data roaming services, such as Roam Surf 399 or other variants, will not be deducted from your consumable allowance but will be charged on top of your monthly recurring fee.

Do I get a smartphone with the Platinum GPlan SIM-Only?

The Platinum GPlan SIM-Only doesn't include a subsidized smartphone. However, you can still purchase a smartphone from Globe through various options, such as cash, credit card, or other gadget financing programs available in Globe Stores.

What is The Platinum All-Month Surf?

The Platinum All-Month Surf is exclusive to customers on Platinum GPlan, Platinum GPlan SIM-Only, ThePLATINUM Plan, and ThePLATINUM Plan PLUS. This feature ensures you won't have to worry about additional charges for local data browsing.

For personal mobile use, Platinum All-Month Surf provides a high 60GB threshold per billing cycle. If you exceed this, browsing speeds may slow down, as Globe's Fair Use Policy applies. Learn more about this policy at www.globe.com.ph/fup

Notifications will help you monitor usage:

First reminder: When nearing your threshold.

Second reminder: Upon exceeding the 60GB limit.

If you wish to extend your threshold, you can subscribe to Surf Refresh promos, such as SR599 (10GB for 15 days), which will be charged on top of your monthly fee.

What is the PLATINUM consumable allowance?

For Platinum GPlan and Platinum GPlan SIM-Only, your consumable allowance provides you with the flexibility to use it for the following:

Subscriptions to Netflix, Spotify, Amazon Prime Video, HBO GO, and other premium content.

GoCall IDD for only P199/month.

Pay-per-use for NDD, IDD, and iSMS (international texts).

Pay-per-use on regular roaming calls and texts.

Direct Carrier Billing for apps, movies, or books from the Google Play Store.

For Platinum GPlan 4999 and 7999, you may also choose to enjoy the service of a Dedicated Platinum Relationship Manager for PHP 199/month, deducted from your consumables.

Keep in mind:

Mobile data roaming (via Roam Surf 399 or other variants) will be charged on top of your monthly recurring fee (MRF).

Your consumable allowance renews every billing cycle. If you subscribe to recurring services like PRM, GoCall IDD, or premium content, they will be deducted automatically. If you cancel these services, they won't be deducted in the next billing cycle.

Unlimited calls and texts to all networks, as well as local calls to landlines and DUO numbers, are already part of your plan and won't be deducted from your consumable allowance.

The Platinum All-Month Surf and built-in data roaming are already covered by your monthly service fee and won't count toward your consumable allowance.

Any charges exceeding the consumable allowance will be added to your monthly bill. For details on promos, please review the terms.

What is The PLATINUM Management Service?

The Platinum Management Service gives you the dedicated attention of a Platinum Relationship Manager, who will be exclusively assigned to your Globe Platinum account. This service is available to Platinum GPlan customers who choose this offer.

For Platinum GPlan (with Device or GCash), you can avail of the Platinum Management Service for only PHP 199/month, deducted from your consumable allowance, if applicable.

For Platinum GPlan SIM-Only, this service is included without any charge to your consumables.

This service is renewed automatically each month and deducted from your consumable allowance (if applicable). If you ever choose to unsubscribe, the change will take effect in the next billing cycle.

Even if you unsubscribe from the Platinum Management Service, you'll still have access to Thea, your Platinum Virtual Concierge, who can assist with everything from bookings to personal shopping.

What is the Globe Priority Network?

With the Globe Priority Network, all Platinum customers are given priority, ensuring a superior mobile data experience. Once you activate your new Platinum GPlan, especially if you're upgrading from a regular postpaid plan, you will be registered on the Globe Priority Network within two weeks.

Please note:

Your data speed may still be affected by the number of users on the same cell ID and the type of device used.

Globe Priority Network works with both 3G and LTE devices, but to get the fastest speed, we recommend using an LTE SIM and LTE device together. This will allow you to enjoy speeds of up to 42Mbps.

If you're still using a 3G SIM, you'll still benefit from the Globe Priority Network, but your speeds may be more limited.

Globe Priority Network is available nationwide, giving Platinum customers the advantage of improved speeds.

I like how my plan works right now. Can I retain it?

Absolutely! You can keep your current plan. However, if you'd like to renew with a new device, you will need to upgrade to the latest Platinum GPlans.

How is the pre-termination fee computed?

If you have a Platinum GPlan with Device, your pre-termination fee will be computed based on the specific terms of your device contract.

For Platinum GPlan with GCash or Platinum GPlan SIM-Only, the pre-termination fee will be calculated according to the contract you have signed.

Please contact Globe customer support or your Platinum Relationship Manager for detailed breakdowns based on your plan type.

Promo and Load Loan Offer? What's this and who can use this?

This service allows all

Globe Prepaid

customers to borrow load or promos instantly and pay later so you stay connected when you need it most!

What types of loans are available, and who is eligible?

For Globe Prepaid customers, available loan amounts depend on your account usage, such as how often you reload and other prepaid activities. These offers may change based on your usage and behavior.

Here are the types of loan services you can borrow:

Emergency Loans - These are load/promo options for urgent services for data, calls or texts.

Promo and Load Loans - These are for selected Globe Prepaid customers based on usage and payment history. You can borrow promos or load for extra data, calls, or texts.

Roaming Loans - These are data or texts promos you can borrow to keep you connected in urgent moments when abroad, and pay it back on your next load or local promo purchase. To avoid early availment, *143# and GlobeOne promo descriptions will indicate that these offers are to be used while abroad and this will be activated immediately.

What emergency loan offers can I borrow?

All Globe Prepaid customers can borrow any of the following emergency offers, valid for 1 day:

Product / Keyword

Description

Price

MBSOS

100 MB data

PHP 6

CALLSOS

3 min all-net calls

PHP 6

TXTSOS

COMBOSOS

PHP 6

IDDSOS

Beyond the emergency loan offers, what other loan offers can I borrow, and how do I qualify?

Other Promo & Load Loan offers are available depending on your eligibility. Check your available loan offers via:

*143#: Dial *143# and select "LOANS"

GlobeOne app: Open the GlobeOne app, choose "Buy Promos" and search "LOAN".

Eligibility is based on your prepaid account activity, including:

Must be a registered and active Globe Prepaid customer

Regular top-ups and usage

Good payment history for previous loaned amounts

How do I borrow a promo or a load amount?

You may borrow a promo or a load amount anytime through any of the following channels:

*143#

Dial *143#

Choose "Loans"

Select your desired loan offer

Choose subscribe

Via GlobeOne app

Open the

GlobeOne app

Click on "Buy Promos"

Search "Loan"

Choose your desired loan offer

Click on "Borrow"

Via SMS

Text the loans keyword to 3733.

Note: Text to 3733 is free.

Via Facebook

While using free Facebook, click "Buy Data" to see your available offers

Can I borrow promos or load multiple times?

You can only have one active loan at a time. Pay your existing loan first before borrowing again.

How much do I pay for my loan?

You will pay the loaned promo or load amount plus a minimal service fee. This fee covers the cost of advancing the service before payment.

Tip! Borrow through the GlobeOne app and enjoy a P1 service fee on any loan offer.

How do I pay for my loan?

You can pay for your loan in three ways:

Purchase load/promo. Your loan will be automatically deducted on your next regular load top-up.

NOTE: Starting March 5, 2026, data of the next promo purchase of some customers may be automatically deducted to settle unpaid loans. We begin collecting from your promo data 14 days after your loan availment date. However, you can always pay in full sooner by purchasing load.

Pay using your load wallet via text (If load is sufficient). Text "PAY LOAN" to 3733.

Pay using your load wallet via *143# (If load is sufficient). Dial *143#, choose "LOANS" and select "PAY LOAN"

You will receive a confirmation message once any automatic collection or manual payment has been made.

Will I be charged payment for delaying payment?

There are no interest charges, but you must settle your loan so you can use the Loans service when you need it again.

I saw an offer and/or received a text stating that part of my data on my next promo top-up will be used to cover my Globe Loan, what does this mean?

Starting March 5, 2026, paying your Globe Loans will be easier. A portion of the data allocated for all sites from your next promo top-up will automatically be used to pay your existing loan (this will be gradually rolled out to select customers). This change makes our loan service more reliable, allowing you to settle faster and continue borrowing whenever you need an extra boost.

Rest assured this feature has been approved by the National Telecommunications Commission (NTC), so you can be confident that it has the necessary permission once it becomes available.

How is data converted to loan/utang payment?

If your loan isn't paid after 14 days, the total unpaid amount (loan + service fee) will be converted to data using a peso-to-MB rate based on the loan type:

PHP 1 = 20MB: Emergency or SOS loans (e.g. MBSOS, TXTSOS, IDDSOS, COMBOSOS, CALLSOS)

PHP 1 = 100MB: All other loan offers

How much data will you deduct from my account? Is there a limit?

Yes. We will only collect up to 50% of your open-access data from the promo you bought. This means half of your data is saved so you still have plenty left to use for your data needs.

If 50% of the promo's open access data is insufficient to cover the loan, we will partially collect based on the data-to-peso conversion rate. On your next promo registration, we will proceed to collect the balance of your loan.

If I was already collected through data collection and then I top up with regular load, will I be charged again?

No. You won't be charged again within 24 hours after your loan is collected, even if you top up with regular load.

Will I receive notifications before or after data collection?

Yes! You'll get a reminder text to top up and pay within 14 days, and another message once your payment has been successfully collected through load or data.

How can I check my unpaid loan balance?

You can easily check it through any of these options:

GlobeOne App: Open the GlobeOne app, go to your Account box on the dashboard, and tap Loan Details to view your Loan Availment Details and Payment History. No data charges apply when using the app.

SMS: Text LOAN STATUS to 3733. This service is free of charge.

*143#: Dial *143#, then select LOANS > Status.

Can I use the Loans service while abroad?

Starting May 5, 2026, you can now avail Loan Roaming data and text offers when abroad by sending the loan keyword to

. Just text

LOAN <Promo Name>

to 3733

(e.g.,

LOAN ROAMSURF50

).

Here are the roaming loan offer keywords:

PHP 7

Soon, these offers will also be available via *143# and GlobeOne. We recommend checking your GlobeOne app regularly and ensuring it's updated to the latest version so you can see the newest offers.

Roaming Loan offers are emergency ("pantawid") services that let you borrow data or texts while abroad so you can stay connected in urgent situations. You can repay the loan on your next reload or by purchasing a local promo. These are meant for short-term, critical use and not as a replacement for regular roaming packages.

Once the loan is fully used, you will automatically switch to standard pay-per-use roaming rates. To avoid these unexpected charges and ensure continuous service, please secure a regular roaming promo

Pay-per-use charges will apply only if all of the following are true:

You have enough load balance

Your roaming loan has expired

You have no active roaming promo

Mobile data and data roaming are both turned ON

To check our partner networks in supported countries, view the full list of roaming destinations here

I wasn't able to use the borrowed roaming offer, can I get a refund? What if I already paid the loan, can I still get a refund if I didn't use it?

In case your flight was cancelled and you're not able to use the service, you may request a refund. If you already paid the loan before submitting the refund request, we will still validate it. Once it is confirmed that the service was not used, we will process the refund or write-off of your loan.

To request for refund, you may get in touch with us via the official Globe Telecom Facebook Messenger

Why is the LOAN ROAMSURF50 not visible in my GlobeOne app? Does this mean I can no longer borrow LOAN ROAMSURF50 abroad?

We've initially piloted the offer to select GlobeOne app users and this will soon be available to all eligible customers.

If the offer is not visible in your GlobeOne yet, you may still be able to avail for emergency promos by sending the keyword to
